Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.
Welcome

Wilderness kayaking is an exciting activity that allows you to experience nature in a unique and peaceful way. This guide will provide you with information about kayaking in Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island, Alaska. Whether you are a beginner or an experienced kayaker, this guide will help you plan your trip.

Climate

The climate in Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island is characterized by mild summers and cold winters. The region is located in the Pacific Northwest rainforest, which means that it receives a significant amount of rainfall throughout the year. The temperature can range from warm in the summer months to cold in the winter months.

Coastline

The coastline in Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island is rugged and varied. The region is home to a number of beaches, coves, and bays that provide excellent opportunities for kayaking. The coastline is also home to a number of small villages and towns that provide services and supplies for kayakers.

Tides and Wind

Tides and wind are important factors to consider when planning a kayaking trip. Tides can affect water flow and currents, while wind can create choppy water and make it more difficult to paddle. Be sure to check tide charts and weather forecasts before you go.

Plan Trip

Contact your friendly local outfitting center to reserve your kayak equipment, food, and supplies. Pack light. Take enough food and water to last you the entire trip. Take along a good fishing or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra water. Be sure you have enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

Fishing

Check all regulations before you go. Be sure you have obtained the necessary fishing permits and licenses. Take along a good fishing or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra food and water. Take along enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

Hiking and Trails

There are many hiking trails located throughout the Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island. These trails offer excellent opportunities for exploring the region's natural beauty. Be sure to check all regulations before you go. Take along a good hiking or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra food and water. Take along enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

Wildlife

Among the wildlife in the Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island are bald eagles, humpback whales, sea lions, seals, salmon, steelhead, and brown bears. Be sure to check the regulations before you go. Take along a good wildlife or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra food and water. Take along enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

When to Go

The best time to go kayaking in Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island is during the summer months. The weather is warm, and the water is calm. Be sure to check the regulations before you go. Take along a good weather or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra food and water. Take along enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

Selecting a Campsite

When selecting a campsite, be sure to consider the following factors: distance from water, accessibility, amenities, and wildlife. Be sure to check the regulations before you go. Take along a good campsite or navigation chart. Take along extra clothing and toiletries. Take along extra food and water. Take along enough water and food. Take along courtesy cards for local commercial boat companies.

We wish you a safe and enjoyable trip on the Misty Fiords National Monument and Revillagigedo Island.